LEADENHALL CAPITAL PARTNERS HIRES BARTHELEMY THOMAS TO BEEF UP ITS FUNDRAISING FUNCTIONS

London – 3rd February 2025

Leadenhall Capital Partners ('Leadenhall' or 'LCP'), a leading investment manager in Non Life and Life & Alternative Credit insurance-linked strategies, announces the appointment of Barthelemy Thomas as Director within its business development team. Barthelemy, with over 10 years of experience, joins LCP from PartnerRe Capital Management in Zurich, where he held the position of Investor Relations and Business Development Manager. Bart joins Leadenhall as Director reporting to Lorenzo Volpi, Managing Partner and Deputy CEO.

At PartnerRe, he supported the growth of the ILS division over five years and participated in the structuring, marketing, and launch of new investment vehicles. His previous experience includes a rotation in the Credit & Surety Underwriting Business Unit at Partner Re.

Lorenzo Volpi says: "We are delighted to welcome Barthelemy, his proven track record in fundraising and managing investor relationships will enhance our ability to attract and retain institutional investors. His expertise in structuring and marketing investment products will contribute to the growth and diversification of our offerings. We are confident that Barthelemy's skills and experience will significantly contribute to Leadenhall's continued success and growth".

Leadenhall CEO Luca Albertini said: "Leadenhall Capital Partners remains committed to reinforcing its position as a leading investment manager, and Bart's appointment underscores the firm's dedication to attracting top-tier talents to drive our continued success in the ILS sector. Bart's values align perfectly with Leadenhall's client-centric approach, ensuring that our clients' needs and interests remain at the forefront of our operations. The team looks forward to leveraging Bart's expertise to further enhance its client offerings and strategic initiatives."
